THE BOERS MADE A GOOD BARGAIN

Saw It Was Useless to Further Prolong War.

COUNTRY WAS BANKRUPT. NOW ENGLAND PAYS FOR ITS RE-BUILDING.

Then in Good Time the Britons Will See a New and Greater Dutch Republic Spring Up in South Africa.

Special Cable to the Post-Dispatch.
LONDON, June 2.—The year given for the Boers' surrender of independence is that they are practically bankrupt, and even if they could prolong the war for two years more they would still be unable to reconstitute their states from the condition of ruin into which the devastation policy has landed them.

Great Britain now will provide the funds for this reconstruction, and the new system must inevitably lead to a federal union of the South African States. The Dutch influence must predominate. It is felt, too, that all the rebels will be amnestied and made for more than two years. It is reasoned that the Boers will begin anew to build up their country, and in time a new and greater Dutch republic will be inaugurated in South Africa.

It is dawning on the British mind that the country has really gained nothing and lost much by the war. The Boers have the substance for the shadow in the end. It is a terrible price paid for the almost simple title of British sovereignty.

The following opinions of the terms of peace have been obtained:

Rear Admiral Sir Charles Roehford: "The terms are just and generous."

Henry Labouchere, M. P. (advanced liberal): "We have gone out with the honors of war and our pockets are well lined as well."

John Burns, M. P. (conservative): "I think the terms may prove to be better than they look. We are really great people when we know how to behave."

The opinions gathered in the lobbies of the House of Parliament, indicate that the leaders of the opposition are not likely to challenge the terms of settlement on any essential point. Some of the unionists members were disposed to think that the financial and amnestied provisions of the agreement were upon the side of liberality and leniency, but the general opinion is that this generosity is wise and politic.

It is expected that from 12,000 to 15,000 people will be disfranchised under the arrangement for dealing with the Cape rebels. If this is the case, the argument is advanced that it would obviate the necessity of suspending the constitution of Cape Colony.

SIGNING PFACE TERMS.

PRETORIA, June 2, Monday.—The signing of the peace agreement on Saturday night last was carried out with the least possible ceremony. Lord Kitchener and Lord Milner, and other British representatives representing the Orange Free State and Gen. Schalk Burger and others of the Transvaal government quietly met in the dining room of the residence occupied by Kitchener's headquarters. The documents on a table, ready. Amid profound silence the Boer leaders took a few minutes for precedence, and affixed their signatures, thus surrendering the independence for which they had so gallantly struggled. The document was then entrusted to Col. Hamilton, Lord Kitchener's private secretary, and Capt. Market, an aide-de-camp, who left Pretoria tonight to deliver it to King Edward.

MRS. THAW DEMANDS ALIMONY

Actress Wife of St. Louis Millionaire's Son Replies to His Suit for Divorce.

Euphonia Jeanette Thaw, the actress wife of Charles Harper Thaw, son of the St. Louis millionaire, has applied to Justice Blanchard of the supreme court of New York for liberal alimony pending the trial of a suit for absolute divorce brought by her husband. She has also asked the court to pay her counsel a fee for defending her.

Mrs. Thaw is at present playing with the Anna Held company.

Mrs. Thaw, in an affidavit, affirms that although her husband is not in any business, he receives a large supply of money from his father.

They were married on July 27, 1901, and, according to the plaintiff, lived together for four weeks only. She makes statutory charges.

Thaw denied these charges, made in his wife's counterclaim, and set forth that he, for similar reasons, was entitled to an absolute divorce.

St. Luke's Hospital Election.—The board of directors of St. Luke's Hospital last night at the St. Louis Club elected the following officers: W. H. Thompson, president; H. N. Davis, vice-president; C. S. Frohman, treasurer; S. S. Hutchins, secretary; F. J. McMartin, assistant treasurer; the Rev. Edmund Duckworth, chaplain; Miss Ida Linden Foster, superintendent of the hospital; Miss Amelle M. Napier, superintendent of the training school.

Pictures for Deaf Mutes.—All the deaf mutes of St. Louis are cordially invited to the lectures of Rev. A. J. Gass, D. D., to be given June 3 and 4, at 8 p. m., at 1849 Cass avenue.

Shot in the Eye.—Frank Brady, 29 years old, living at 1220 North Third street, was shot in the eye by a bullet from a .38 Smith & Wesson revolver, which was fired from the loop at Forest Park Sunday.

THREE DAYS. Then Postum Saved Him.

It makes rather solid friends of people when they discover a liquid food that will save life in extreme cases of need. Speaking of Postum Food Office, a lady in Toledo, O., says: "For over five years now I have used Postum Coffee entirely in place of the ordinary coffee or tea."

"I used to have stomach trouble and every time I drank a cup of ordinary coffee suffered the greatest distress. My troubles left when I left off coffee and began using Postum."

"The most severe test I know of was when my husband was down with gastric typhoid fever. His stomach would retain nothing; we tried milk and various other drinks. Everything we put into his stomach would come up in less than three minutes. After the third day of this kind of work I concluded to give him some Postum Coffee. He drank it and retained it, and for the first time in four weeks he lived on Postum and nothing else to speak of. You can depend upon it that Postum gained some good friends for husband would have died if it had not been for Postum Coffee. Name given entirely by Postum Coffee. Name given by Postum Coffee. Name given by Postum Coffee."

STONE THROWN AT CAR HIT WOMAN

STANISLAUS WEROWSKI FINED $25 BY JUDGE WISLENZUS.

HE PLEADED NOT GUILTY.

Judge Said He Knew Transit Company Ignored Law, but Passengers Must Be Protected.

Stanislaus Werowski of 1405 Chouteau avenue was fined $25 in the Dayton Street Police Court Tuesday on a charge of having thrown a stone through a window of an Easton avenue car which failed to stop for him at Easton and Blackstone avenue Sunday night.

He pleaded not guilty, and said that he had been passed by four eastbound cars before someone threw a stone at the car mentioned. The missile, according to the testimony of P. A. Mosley, motorman of the car, struck Mrs. O. Stiemer of 1204 Sullivan avenue.

After the stone was thrown the car was stopped and Werowski was arrested by the conductor, L. J. Lockwood of 310 Easton avenue, placed on the car and taken to the Court street police station.

Judge Wislzensus said: "I believe that the defendant is guilty, but I think he was provoked by the fact that the transit company ignores the crossing law. One act of lawlessness leads to another. The citizen breaks the law when he sees a corporation ignoring it. I know from testimony in this court and from my own personal knowledge that the transit company breaks the law in regard to stopping at a passenger's hall ever day. But I must protect passengers, and therefore I fine the defendant."

Assistant City Attorney Thos. L. Anderson said that he would issue a summons at once against the transit company for failing to stop the car for Werowski.

HALED TO COURT IN BLUE PAJAMAS

BUT KEATING HAD HIS BULLDOG PIPE WITH HIM.

NO SHOES, NO SOCKS, NO HAT.

Prisoner Said He Was Chasing His Runaway Wife, and Had no Time to Don His Street Attire, When Arrested.

Pale blue pajamas and a bull-dog pipe constituted the costume of Thomas Keating of 112 Locust street when he appeared for trial in the City Hall Police Court Tuesday morning.

Sans shoes, sans socks, sans belt or hat, Keating blew rings of smoke at the ceiling of the "cage" and tapped the floor contentedly with his bare feet while awaiting his case to be called.

Acting Judge Robinson opened the proceedings without learning of the commotion Keating's Filipino attire was creating among the other prisoners and the court attaches.

"Call the next case," he ordered and Deputy Marshal Smith sang out, "Thomas Keating, come forward."

There was a noise inside the "cage," but the defendant did not answer to his name. A deputy marshal hurried to the judge's bench and whispered.

The court was filled with spectators, many of them women. Judge Robinson blushed. The other officials were hardly called in consultation. City Attorney Taylor blushed even more deeply than the court, while Clerk Macaulay and his assistant, Harry Whalen, shuddered at the prospect.

"There is an old proverb in my office," said Assistant City Attorney Stanton. "Suppose we let him wear that while his case is being heard."

Just then a negro appeared with a basket. "Mr. Keating's clothes," he said, and the situation was relieved. After he had donned the basketed habiliments Keating said:

"I had trouble with my wife last night. There had been some beer in the house. I had just gone to bed when she said she was going to leave the house."

"I jumped out of bed and ran after her. I turned down Locust street and ran to the corner of Eleventh. It was about 1 o'clock this morning. Two policemen saw me and sent me to the Four Courts in a patrol wagon. It was mighty cold there all night without any blankets. And it was pretty cold in that 'cage' this morning."

Policemen McKee and Stuart were in court ready to relate the graphic story of Keating's capture, but as the prosecuting witness, Johanna Keating, failed to appear, Keating was permitted by Judge Robinson to leave the courtroom with his pipe betwixt his teeth.

The court advised Keating, if he could not subdue his penchant for nocturnal foraging, to secure a regulation track suit instead of the pale blue pajamas, and thus relieve the possibility of a blanketless slumber in Chief Kely's basket.

VAN DRESSER—STONE

White and Green Wedding at High Noon in the Church of the Messiah—Honeymoon at Memphis.

The wedding of Miss Jassamine Stone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Stone, and Charles Van Dresser of New York, formerly of Memphis, Tenn., took place Tuesday at high noon in the Church of the Messiah. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. John Day. Charles Galloway presided at the organ. The wedding was in white and green. The church was profusely decorated with white sweet peas, stately palms and ferns.

The matron of honor, Mrs. George Watling, wore Paris' muslin over purple green taffeta. The trained skirt was finished by deep tucked flounce. The entire gown was inset with medallions and bands of val lace. She wore a knotted sash of pale green ribbon and carried a shower bouquet of white sweet peas and maidenhair fern.

Miss Hattie Seales of New York and Miss Clara Stone were bridesmaids. They wore white silk. The demit-train skirts were elaborately trimmed with val insertion lace and chiffon with bows and knots of green lousins ribbons. Bouquets of white sweet peas and lace ferns added the finishing touches to these dainty gowns.

The bride entered the church with her father and was met at the chancel by the bridegroom and his best man, Arthur C. Van Dresser, his brother, of Memphis, Tenn.

The bridal robe was of white liberty silk and Irish lace. The long train was finished by two deep accordion pleatings arranged in festoons. The waist was made with transparent yoke of the lace, with stock and girdle of the same. Her long bluish veil was held to her hair by pearl pins and a bouquet of pure white sweet peas arranged in a shower was carried by her.

Little Miss Mary Lewis Stone, a niece of the bride, served as flower girl in a pretty frock of white organdie lace and pale green ribbons.

The ushers were Messrs. Fred Blanka, Charles Barber, James Westlake and Frank Threlberg.

After the ceremony at the church, a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. William F. Saunders of 5502 Clemens avenue. A small informal reception followed, after which Mr. and Mrs. Van Dresser departed on the boat for Memphis, Tenn., where they will visit the bridegroom's family before going to New York, their future home.

A KNOCK-OUT DROP CASE

John Summers Is Held a Prisoner On Suspicion of Having Poisoned and Robbed Saloon-keeper Herbel.

John Summers, 46 years old, who gives his address as 2005 Page avenue, is a prisoner at the Four Courts. He is suspected of being an administrator of "knockout drops," and the police are investigating him.

Sommers, it is alleged, is one of the men who robbed Andrew Herbel of $450 and a watch and chain last Saturday night.

Herbel is a saloonkeeper at 1226 Sidney street. Saturday evening two men entered his saloon and ordered drinks. They sat down, and being well dressed and good talkers, interested Herbel.

They wanted to treat, and after drinking several times there was a noise at the back door and Herbel got up to see what it was. This was just after a new drink had been poured.

When Herbel returned he drank his liquor and was immediately seized with a stupor. When he recovered consciousness his new found friend had disappeared, as had also his money and watch.

John Hingstetter, a saloonkeeper at 216 North Broadway, had a similar experience. When Sommers was arrested he was carrying a watch and chain which Herbel identified as being the property of the saloonkeeper.

As his friend of Saturday night.

DR. JOHNSON RELEASED.

Prosecution in Beauty Mask Case Abandoned.

CHICAGO, June 2.—The case against Dr. E. Wesley Johnson, who was arrested in connection with the death of Miss May Thompson, which took place last Tuesday, being treated by "Dr. Johnson," has been abandoned before Justice Edwards. Johnson was charged with involuntary manslaughter. Miss Thompson had worn a "beauty mask" and was undergoing treatment to improve her appearance when she died. The police did not have witnesses and sought a continuance.

ROSE MARION TALKS TO CHARMING AMERICAN PRINCESS IN ST. LOUIS

Daughters of Gen. Pleasant Porter, Indian Chieftain and Politician, Tell of Their Native City, Muskogee, and of Their School Life.

BY ROSE MARION.

American princesses. Daughters of an Indian chief—Gen. Pleasant Porter of Muskogee, I. T. These were the guests of St. Louis Thursday. Not after the fashion of their ancestors did they come, with paint and feathers and tin. Instead, just like any other American girls of the twentieth century, in tailor-made gowns, shirtwaists and walking hats.

The elder, Miss Marion Porter, has been a student at Belmont College in Nashville, Tenn., during the winter. She is on her way home for the summer vacation. Her father and her little sister, Miss Leonora, came to St. Louis to meet her.

Thursday I waited for them in the parlors of the Laclede Hotel. Scarcely had I time to picture the young women when a swish of drapery announced the presence of the younger, who had come to say that her sister would be down soon.

I was disappointed. The little girl of 14 years in a summer gown of green and white lawn gave evidence of not a single Indian characteristic. Her light brown hair went back in waves from her face, her cheeks were not prominent and her eyes were just a mild brown.

Her voice was a pretty little girl's voice—not rasping nor shrill, nor heavy. But clear, sweet, and with a southern softness that charmed.

SLIGHTLY BASHFUL.

Her manner was not that of the assured never-fail-you young woman.

Instead she gave most interesting evidence of bashfulness that were only half hidden by her earnest desire to please.

"My home is in Muskogee in the Territory. Muskogee isn't so large, but it's larger than most of the towns down there."

"We have one railroad and we expect to have another. We haven't public water-works, you know, only a private system."

The little girl told of her home town in undecided, jerky sentences of well selected English, but when I asked concerning the scenery around her home she spoke with more ease.

"It is mostly flat. There are some hills, but no mountains. Over in Arkansas there are bluffs. We go over there to picnics."

Her eyes brightened so over Arkansas picnics that I wished that I, too, might go to Arkansas to a picnic.

"The coloring of the scenery in the territory is mostly flat. There are some hills, but no mountains. Over in Arkansas there are bluffs. We go over there to picnics."

BLOCKADED.

Every Household in St. Louis Should Know How to Resist It.

The back aches because the kidneys are blocked.

Help the kidneys with their work. The back will ache no more.

Lots of proof that Doan's Kidney Pills do this.

It's the best proof, for it comes from St. Louis.

Mrs. Fred Henson of 2022 Mullany street says: "I doctored steadily for a year and in addition paid out considerable money for cure cures for kidney complaint, but in spite of it all I was scarcely able frequently to stand the pain across the loins. In addition to it, the kidney secretions were not right and were particularly active during the night. When the attacks were at their height I was annoyed with dizziness, my eyes pained and other symptoms clearly proved that my health was far from being good. I went to 'Wolf-Wilson', corner of Sixth street and Washington avenue, for Doan's Kidney Pills and took a course of the treatment. It very promptly disposed of the last attack. My daughter, who was also complaining of backache, tried Doan's Kidney Pills and received just as positive benefit as I."

For sale by all dealers. Price, 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitutes.

BATH OF CARBOLIC ACID CAUSED DEATH

DEMENTED PERSON PUT INTO IT BY ATTENDANT.

NURSE HAD MADE A MISTAKE

She Had Intended to Put Ammonia in the Water, but Procured Wrong Bottle.

Special to the Post-Dispatch. CHICAGO, May 30.—Another case of alleged mismanagement and criminal carelessness at the county poorhouse at Dunming was unearthed yesterday, when the death of Mary G. Dool, an aged inmate, was reported to the coroner's office.

She died from the effects of burns received in a bathtub through the carelessness of the nurse in attendance a week ago, and yet no mention of the death or its cause was made in the reports of the institution. Part of the treatment accorded her consisted of ammonia baths.

About ten days ago Ida T. Dool, the nurse in attendance, made the bath ready for the patient. Reaching out for what she thought was the bottle of ammonia, Miss Dool grasped instead a bottle of carbolic acid and poured the poison into the bath.

When the old woman was placed in the tub her screams of agony told the nurse that something was wrong. The entire lower portion of the patient's back was severely burned and she was placed under the care of physicians. Death came yesterday.

Superintendent Lange placed the nurse under suspension as soon as the accident was reported to him. Why an immediate investigation was not started by the superintendent is not known. Mr. Lange says that he undertook no steps in the matter because the ultimate recovery of the woman was a matter of doubt, and to have made starting charges at the time of the accident might have cast discredit where it did not belong. The fact that other employees were told not to talk about the affair, added to the absence of mention of the case in the superintendent's report yesterday, indicates that had the woman recovered no knowledge of the burning would have gone beyond the walls of the institution.

PORTO RICANS ARE GARROTED.

PONCE, Porto Rico, June 3.—Bernabe Acevedo, Jose Torres, Ramon Troche Cadene and Juan Torres, the four men found guilty of murder, robbery and outrage committed in October, 1898, at Guayma, a suburb of Adjuntas, were garroted here today.

They were all put to death within 20 minutes and the average time taken to kill each man was two minutes.

All the condemned men confessed their crimes as they walked to the scaffold. Two of them aided the executioner to adjust the garrote and forgave him for putting them to death.

One of the prisoners resisted the placing of the cloth over his face. He said he wanted to die with his face uncovered. Finally, after fifteen minutes' struggle, he was subdued. There were only 20 witnesses to the execution.

The men were part of a band of 25 who entered Ponce in a house and seized Pina and the other members of the household. Pina was hung by his feet and his ears were cut off. He was afterwards hanged. The women of the household were attacked and the place was looted.

PEACEMAKER WAS KILLED.

One of Belligerents Shot Him After Trouble Was Over.

Special to the Post-Dispatch. SOUTH MCGILISTREE, I. T., June 3.—J. G. Bailey, a traveling salesman, residing at Kilmory, I. T., was shot and killed at that place by Postmaster Charles Collard under circumstances that provoked a desire for vengeance on Collard.

Railley was shot while standing in his own yard leaning on a gate. He had just stopped Collard and some of his friends from beating a man.

Collard seemed sobered by his deed, and with menacing gestures with his rifle, he mounted his horse and rode away at a gallop. Bailey had intended to cripple his horse, but neither rider nor steed was apparently injured.

I CURE

Stricture Without the Knife or Bougie. Contagious Blood Poison Never to Return. Loss of Manly Vigor, No Stimulant, but Permanent. Varicocele Without Operation and No Loss of Time.

I want every man afflicted with any disease peculiar to the male sex to call on me personally, or write to me, and I will explain to him my method of curing these diseases. I invite in particular all men who have become dissatisfied with treatment elsewhere. I will demonstrate to your entire satisfaction why I can cure you permanently.

CERTAINTY OF A CURE is what you want, and I have so much confidence in my treatment that I am willing to accept your case WITHOUT ONE DOLLAR IN ADVANCE.

I give with some guarantee of success, Nervous Debility, Piles, Kidney, Bladder and Prostatic Troubles and Disorders. A few days' rest, long and deep breathers have made their appearance, given rise to reasonable belief that startling venereal diseases are insurmountable. It is my aim, and I mean, the rapid, complete cure of all venereal diseases, and I have been successful in the treatment of all cases.

PUGET SOUND OATS FOR SOUTH AFRICA

TWENTY-FIVE HUNDRED TONS
PURCHASED FOR BRITISH USE.

WILL MAKE FIVE FULL CARGOES

New Steamship Ganges Taking on the
First Load at the Balfour-Guthrie
Warehouses.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
TACOMA, Wash., June 3.—The British steamship Ganges has arrived here from Vancouver, B. C., to load oats at Balfour, Guthrie & Co.'s warehouses for South Africa for the British government. The Ganges is a new steamship of 221 tons and recently arrived at Vancouver from Shanghai under charter to the British government for a voyage to South Africa with a cargo of oats and other forage for the military forces there engaged.

The Ganges has been at Vancouver for several days loading, but will take quite a shipment from this port. It is stated that Balfour, Guthrie & Co. have recently sold the British government 200 tons of oats to be shipped to South Africa by calling vessel and have disposed of another 500 tons for shipment by steamer. The quantity which the Ganges will load here is not yet known.

The British government is to load, in all, five cargoes of oats for South Africa. The first cargo will be that carried by the Ganges. The second will be taken by the British steamship Cymbeline, which is now discharging a cargo of bags and jute at San Francisco from Calcutta. She will proceed to Vancouver to load forage. A third vessel, not yet known, will follow her. Another steamship, the Askenhall, a 600-ton carrier, is en route from Coronel to Portland to load oats for South Africa for the British government. The fifth cargo will be that to be taken by a sailer from Puget Sound.

A New Optical Company.
Messrs. Oliver Abel and David J. Macdonald have formed a partnership under the firm name of Abel & Macdonald and will open a store this week at 525 Locust street in the room now being vacated by the Missouri Trust Co.
Mr. Abel has for some time been identified with the optical department of the A. S. Aloe Co., and is recognized as a leader in scientific optics, and Mr. Macdonald, until recently connected with Roberts, Johnson & Hand Shoe Co., is a business man of marked ability. Mr. Macdonald has for years been the organist at the Washington and Compton Presbyterian Church and is prominent in musical circles.
The new firm will make a specialty of filling oculists' prescriptions and frame fitting. They will carry a high-grade line of spectacles, eyeglasses, and everything connected with their business as first-class opticians.

MUCH MONEY FOR SMALL LOT.
Lease for It Calls for $40,000 Yearly for Twenty Years

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
NEW YORK, June 3.—At Thirty-fourth street and Broadway is a piece of ground 21 feet wide and 51 feet deep. R. H. Macy & Co. is erecting a giant 13-story dry goods store that covers all the balance of the Broadway frontage and runs back nearly an entire city block on Thirty-fourth and Thirty-fifth streets.

The little corner lot three years ago was held at $100,000.
When Macy tried to buy it two years ago, the price was boosted and there was no sale. A few weeks later Henry Seifert paid $375,000 for it. He was criticized sharply for poor judgment.

Today Seifert leased the place for twenty years at an annual rental of 5 per cent and taxes on a valuation of $800,000. Seifert is to build a four-story storehouse on it to cost $40,000.

BABY FELL FROM WINDOW.

Concussion of Brain Will Probably Result in Death.
Ernie Kershaw, the 15-month-old son of Thomas Kershaw, crawled out of an open window Monday night and fell 15 feet, suffering concussion of the brain. It is believed that the child will die.
The baby was left sleeping in the bedroom while its parents were in another room. During their absence he crawled to the window and managed to reach the sill, from which he fell.

EARTHQUAKES IN OLD MEXICO

Shocks Were Felt at Several Places Sunday, Stricken Chilpancingo Again Being Terrorized.

MEXICO CITY, June 3.—Earthquake shocks continue in that portion of the state of Guerrero where seismic activity has long been a matter of observation and record.

There were renewals of earthquakes Sunday in Chilpancingo, which is just recovering from the previous shock which ruined the city, the capital of the state of Guerrero. There was also a strong earthquake shock at Taxco, a mining town and a slight shock was felt here.

A recent examination of Cerro Del Coll, an extinct volcano near the city of Guadalupe, shows that the matter inside the crater is composed of a gelatinous mud which slides about, but without breaking or exploding. There is no apprehension regarding this mountain.

COLLEGE PRESIDENT IS DEAD.

Dr. Barrows of Oberlin Organized World's Parliament of Religions.
OBERLIN, O., June 3.—After nine days' illness, John Henry Barrows, president of Oberlin College, died at 2:20 this morning. Dr. Barrows was born in Medina, Mich., July 1, 1847. He was graduated from Oberlin College in 1867. His theological training was obtained in Yale, Union and Andover seminaries. He did educational work in Kansas for two years. He preached in Springfield, Ill., and in Lawrence and Boston, Mass. He traveled abroad for one year.

In 1893 Dr. Barrows was the organizer and president of the world's parliament of religions, held during the World's Fair in Chicago. In 1898 he went to India to give the Haskell lecture for the University of Chicago. In 1901 he was elected president of Oberlin College. During his incumbency as president the institution has prospered greatly. A widow, three daughters and a son survive him.

AMUSEMENTS.

TAYLOR GUARDS CHILD CLOSELY

Wants Kidnaping Story Kept From Daughter.

TOLD SHE WAS VISITING.

LITTLE ONE THOUGHT AUNT WAS HER MOTHER.

NEW YORK, June 2.—Albert Vinton Taylor, who, as was announced in Monday's Post-Dispatch, has arrived here from Genoa, Italy, with his little daughter, Margaret Vinton, who was abducted by her maiden aunt, Clara Taylor, from Fernbank, a suburb of Cincinnati, Aug. 11, 1888, is guarding the child closely, not allowing her to see any one except his most intimate friends.

The aunt is now in jail at San Remo, Italy, and is soon to be brought to America. Another maiden aunt, Miss Frances Langworthy Taylor, who is 38 years old, has also been convicted in Cincinnati of child stealing and has been sentenced to one year each in the penitentiary.

Mrs. Louis Ormliston Ghant, of London, a social purity reformer and advocate of women's rights, also appears in the story. She had known for four years that an American woman under the name of Mrs. Katherine Forrest, but whose right name was Miss Clara Taylor, was living in penury at 38 Gloucester Road and other addresses with a little girl, whom she called Winnifred Forrest, her daughter.

The woman reformer kept silent four years. It was the bringing to trial of the aged grandmother and the younger spinster aunt in Cincinnati that finally prompted Mrs. Ghant to write Gov. George K. Nash, of Ohio, and to inform in London, Ambrose Chouteau of the woman and the child.

The child is pale and quite ill. When she left the steamer she was clad in a white sailor suit, her strange, unnatural life for a child has affected her and she is very shy.

"I will not allow the child to make a statement," said her father. "I wish her never to know that she was abducted, but always to believe that she was taken abroad to live temporarily with a relative."

"The thing that cut me most," said Mr. Taylor, "was the fact that when I met Margaret in the office of the American consul at Genoa, she did not know me. Margaret soon understood, however, that Mrs. Forrest was not her mother, that she had parents and should go to them."

"I did not know my sister, but I do not believe that she will resist extradition. Margaret was reluctant to leave her aunt, who had taught the child to call her 'mother,' and the two clung to each other in jail and wept a long time before they could be separated."

"Whatever disposition may be made of the case against my sister, I shall always remember that she treated my little girl with extreme kindness and unbounded affection. In my opinion, my sister is mentally unbalanced."

Later Mr. Taylor and his daughter went to the Everett Hotel and met Mrs. Taylor. It was a dramatic scene, the meeting of mother and child, and all three wept as they embraced.

In view of the restoration of the child, safe and well, and the alleged mental condition of Miss Clara Taylor, it is not likely that any of the three alleged conspirators in the child stealing case will ever be punished.

DEMOCRATS IN GOOD SPIRITS

Hill Brings the Discordant Elements of Party Together.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

ALBANY, N. Y., June 2.—Tammany Hall Democrats and Democrats from the country districts of the state mingled in perfect harmony last night at the opening of the state committee's headquarters here.

This magnificent result was wrought by David Bennett Hill.

It is expected that the meeting will bring the discordant elements of the party into harmony and make easy sailing for the Democratic state ticket.

Runaway Probably Fatal—John Norton, 26 years old, living at 3045 Easton avenue, was probably fatally injured in a runaway Monday afternoon. He is employed by Verrier Bros. as a driver, and was delivering goods. The wagon turned over at Grand avenue and Pine street, and Norton was thrown to the pavement, sustaining a concussion of the brain.

FLOODS SWEEP OVER JOLIET

THREE CHILDREN DROWNED AND OTHER FATALITIES REPORTED.

JOLIET, Ill., June 2.—Joliet is in the grasp of the worst flood in its history. The lower portion of the city is under water. Eddie McGovern, Lizzie McGovern and a little girl named Kennedy have been drowned, and several other fatalities are reported. Several families had narrow escapes and the police rescued many in danger. Many streets are under water and the business places in some instances are flooded, causing thousands of dollars of damage. The street car lines are all seriously damaged and no cars are running. All trains are stalled, water being two feet deep over the railroad tracks. Several washouts have occurred on the electric line between here and Chicago. Heavy rains, which continued all night, caused Hickory and Spruce creeks to burst their banks and it is stated that Hickory creek dam outside of the city has partially collapsed, sending the flood of waters down in a torrent. Scores of homes have from one to three feet of water in the first stories.

REHEARSING THE PAGEANT.

Officials Preparing for the British Coronation.

LONDON, June 2.—Following the rehearsal of the coronation procession to Westminster Abbey, which was followed out in all its details May 27, including the taking up of passengers at Buckingham palace and putting them down at Westminster Abbey, the second day's pageant was rehearsing this morning. The procession today, which covered the long route, was much smaller than the elaborate one which will traverse the same ground June 27, but all the prescribed stops were made and at each point the receptions and formalities of the actual parade were fully rehearsed, the whole occupying about four hours.

ST. LOUIS FIRMS IN BIG COMBINE

TWO OF CITY'S LARGEST STEEL PLANTS TO BE ABSORBED.

The two largest steel foundries of St. Louis, the American and the Leighton & Howard, are prospective members of a $30,000,000 combination of steel foundries which is being formed by Eastern capitalists.

Officials of the Leighton & Howard Co. say that the new move is not in the direction of absorption by the steel trust, although steel trust magnates will own stock in the new merged company.

A. J. Eddy of Chicago is the promoter of the combination, and the firms which it is proposed to take in, besides the St. Louis concerns, are the American Steel Casting Co. of New Jersey, the Reliance Steel Casting Co. of Pittsburgh, the Franklin Steel Casting Co. of Franklin, Pa., and the Saginaw Co. of Chicago.

The capital of the new enterprise will be $15,000,000, 6 per cent cumulative preferred stock and $15,000,000 common stock.

As the seat of the two largest companies St. Louis may be made the headquarters of the concern. If the capitalists who have financed the organization, and who will have the decision of this point, decide to locate the company in the East, it is still likely that St. Louis will be made a distributing point.

The organization of a steel foundry combine was undertaken a year ago by Harris, Gates & Co., but was not successfully carried through.

Mayor Rolla Wells of St. Louis is heavily interested in the American Steel Foundry Co., of which Edward C. Goitra is president.

NO OUTING FOR SOLDIERS.

Second Missouri Regiment Will Not Camp This Year

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEVADA, Mo., June 2.—Col. Harry Mitchell of the Second regiment, N. G. M., has informed the company commanders that no funds are available for a regimental outing this year.

The colonel urges the soldiers to keep up hope that the next legislature will do something for the militia.

"R. C. E."
Oh, See What?

SEE how easily the strength the development, the vitality which Nature puts into thriving wheat and barley slips into your own system. One preacher writes that he gets from "FORCE" all the strength necessary for his hard Sunday work "without knowing that he has a stomach." Take a little "FORCE" just before going to bed and see how soundly you'll sleep.

SEE how easy it is to eat a proper food when it comes to you in a sweet, crisp, delicate flakes.

SEE your doctor first, if you want to, and see if he doesn't tell you that you can't put into your stomach anything better than a proper combination of whole wheat and milk.

SEE your grocer next and buy a package of "FORCE," which is composed of the whole of the wheat and barley malt.

SEE how easy it is to eat a proper food when it comes to you in a sweet, crisp, delicate flakes.

BREAKERS AHEAD FOR PRESIDENT

Senate Republicans Combine to Defeat His Plans.

FIGHT CUBAN RECIPROCITY.
SENATOR ELKINS SECURES PLEDGES AT HIS LUNCHEON

Roosevelt Is Making Vigorous Campaign to Overcome This Opposition, for Which Beet Sugar Men Are Responsible.

INSURGENT SITUATION IN THE SENATE.

First—There can be no legislation for Cuban reciprocity by a Republican party vote.
Second—There can be no caucus that will force the Republicans to support the reciprocity proposition.
Third—Senator Aldrich is fighting to preserve his reputation as a leader.
Fourth—President Roosevelt is in face to face with a rebellious Senate.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, June 3.—Eighteen Republican United States senators sat around a luncheon table in Senator Elkins' committee room and pledged themselves to oppose the proposition to give the Cuban republic direct reciprocity on its exports to the United States.

They were, and are, serious about it. There has been a five weeks' campaign of talk. Nosen have been counted by both sides, time and time again. Statements have been made and discounted. At last, the Republicans, who protest against what they call the "ruin" of the beet sugar industry by a Republican party vote, came out from cover, ate the good things Senator Elkins provided and then boldly took their stand and announced to the world that they were there, firm as the eternal hills, with no volcano within danger distance.

When Senator Elkins looked around his hospitable board he saw these statesmen gathered there:

Those Who Were There.

Kearns of Idaho, Burrows of Michigan, Mitchell of Oregon, Mason of Illinois, Perkins and Bard of California, Gamble and Kittredge of South Dakota, Foster of Washington, Nelson and Clapp of Minnesota, Scott of West Virginia, Jones of Nevada, Millard and Dietrich of Nebraska, Pritchard of North Carolina and Burton of Kansas.

He had letters from Wellington of Maryland and Simon of Oregon, saying they would abide by the result of the meeting. This is the proposition evolved, subscribed and promulgated.

"We will oppose any proposition that looks to granting any measure of reciprocity whatever to Cuba," we agreed to grant to Cuba a rebate on all exports amounting to 20 or 30 or whatever per cent of the duties may be payable, this sum to be separated from the revenues on Cuban goods, not to be turned into the Cuban States treasury, and to be distributed to the Cuban people as their needs may be known."

While this may seem to unthinking persons a polite way of whipping them around the stump, it is declared by those senators to be a patriotic and feasible plan which will do no injury to any home produce and will assist the Cubans, instead of throwing money to the sugar trust. Really, it is also the guarantee to Nelson W. Aldrich of Rhode Island, who for years has been the champion of the cause of the Senate and the man who dictates its policies and lays out its plans. Aldrich is for Cuban reciprocity.

President Is Working Energetically.
Associated with Mr. Aldrich in this fight is Theodore Roosevelt, President of the United States.

He summoned to the White House Senator Nelson, Gamble, Kittredge and Foster. He told them how much he desired a percentage bill providing for reciprocity with Cuba.

They went back to the Senate, talked it over with Senator Elkins, and the invitation to the luncheon that is bound to be famous was the result.

The invitation included everybody who has been suspected of having beet sugar leanings. Senators McMillan of Michigan, Spooner and Quarles of Wisconsin, Allison and Doolittle of Iowa and Warren and Clark of Wyoming refused to attend. Nelson, Foster, Gamble and Kittredge went. They had listened attentively to the Freely and without bias, and about the least apparent fear of consequences they certified at the luncheon that they intended to do what they pleased and not what the President had asked.

Then they went away and many of them promptly forgot what had been said to them. President Roosevelt last night held a grand rally of the faithful. He sent for and conferred with them between 9 and 11 o'clock. Postmaster-General Payne, Senators Hanna, Aldrich, Spooner, Allison, Platt and Connally, a few others, Representatives Babcock, Hull, Dalzell, Payne and Sherman were among them.

After several meetings it was evident that no arrangements could be made to connect with the teachers' annuity plan, which was held May 24.

Making Bricks Without Straw
Must be extremely difficult, but not more so than an attempt to incorporate paint materials without the requisite machinery. Proper ingredients, scientific skill and modern machinery are "three of a kind" that are hard to beat, and we have them all. A good paint for every purpose. FLAGS, LIQUOR AND FEATHERS.
All Prepare to Make a Night of It in Rejoicing Over Peace.

LONDON, June 2.—At 7 o'clock this evening the streets of London were filling up with a throng of a riotous character. Working people are parading, instead of going home. Flags, liquor and feathers are having an enormous sale, and traffic in the principal thoroughfares is becoming more and more difficult.

Vicinity of the Mansion House, the Strand and Piccadilly are the favorite centers of the crowds and the metropolis seems to be giving itself over to a strained rejoicing.

Queen Alexandra drove out from Buckingham Palace at 4 p. m. and was greeted with loud cheers.

Processions are being organized for tonight.

TROUBLE OVER A SCHOOL PICNIC

U. S. EXPRESS AND PACIFIC SPLIT

JOINT AGREEMENT BETWEEN COMPANIES IS DISSOLVED.

THE JANITOR SHUT THEM OUT. CAUSE OF TROUBLE SECRET.

Now the Pupils of the Madison School May Have Another Outing Before the School Year Comes to an End.

There is an incipient row on between the patrons of the Madison school and the Platte Committee, over the annual school outing this year.

The strife was brought to a culmination Monday night when about 200 South Side business men, patrons of the school, were denied admittance to the school building, at Seventh street and Chouteau avenue.

Part of the regular school picnic committee, of which Principal Dyer was a member, wanted to give an excursion and others a picnic at one of the parks.

Several meetings were held, but no definite understanding could be reached, and it was decided to abandon the idea of a separate outing and to have the school picnic in connection with the teachers' annuity picnic, which was held May 24.
